

The Life of
Her Majesty
Queen
Elizabeth

1926-2022

Today, we mourn the sad loss
of our Queen, who died
peacefully yesterday aged
96 years old.

The Queen was Britain's
longest reigning monarch.
She was our wonderful
Queen for 70 years.

Earlier this year, we celebrated her Platinum Jubilee at our school.

Let's look back at the life of our amazing monarch, who dedicated her life to her public.

The Queen was born 21st April 1926.

Her parents were
the Duke and Duchess of
York.

The Queen's name was
Elizabeth Alexandra Mary
Windsor.

Her nickname "Lilibet" as she could not pronounce her own name when she was a young girl.

She had a younger sister named
Princess Margaret Rose

When she turned 18, Princess Elizabeth joined the Army. She began her training as a mechanic in 1945.

When her father died, Princess Elizabeth became Queen.

On 2nd June 1953, Princess Elizabeth was crowned Queen Elizabeth 2nd in Westminster Abbey.

She was 26 years old.

The coronation was the first to be on television.

Three million people lined the streets of London to watch the procession.

The Queen was the political figure head and reigned over lots of countries, not just the United Kingdom.

She was also the Queen of Canada, Australia, New Zealand,

Jamaica, Barbados, The Bahamas, Grenada, Papua New Guinea,

The Solomon Islands, Tuvalu, St. Lucia, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, Antigua and Barbuda, Belize and St Kitts and Nevis.

Although the Queen was not responsible for governing the country, she carried out a great many important tasks on behalf of the nation.

As Head of State, the Queen went on official State visits abroad.

She also invited other world leaders to come to the United Kingdom.

Her duties were a mix of tradition and morale-boosting.

Such as:

- Opening The Houses of Parliament.
- Support the Prime Minister
- Signing off laws that the Government make.
- Attending various “engagements”, which can form of hosting dinners, attending walkabouts and events, such as Remembrance Day and handing out awards.

She even came to Blackburn

The Queen's family

The Queen married The Duke of Edinburgh, November 20, 1947, at Westminster Abbey in London, England.

The Duke of Edinburgh died
9th April 2021, aged 99
years old.

The Queen's family

The Queen and Prince Phillip have 4 children:

Prince
Charles
The Prince of Wales

Princess
Anne
Princess
Royal

Prince
Andrew
Duke of York

Prince
Edward
Earl of Wessex

She leaves behind 8 Grandchildren

Peter Mark Andrew Phillips,

Zara Anne Elizabeth Phillips,

Prince William of Wales,

Prince Henry of Wales

Princess Beatrice of York,

Princess Eugenie of York,

Viscount Severn, James
Mountbatten-Windsor.

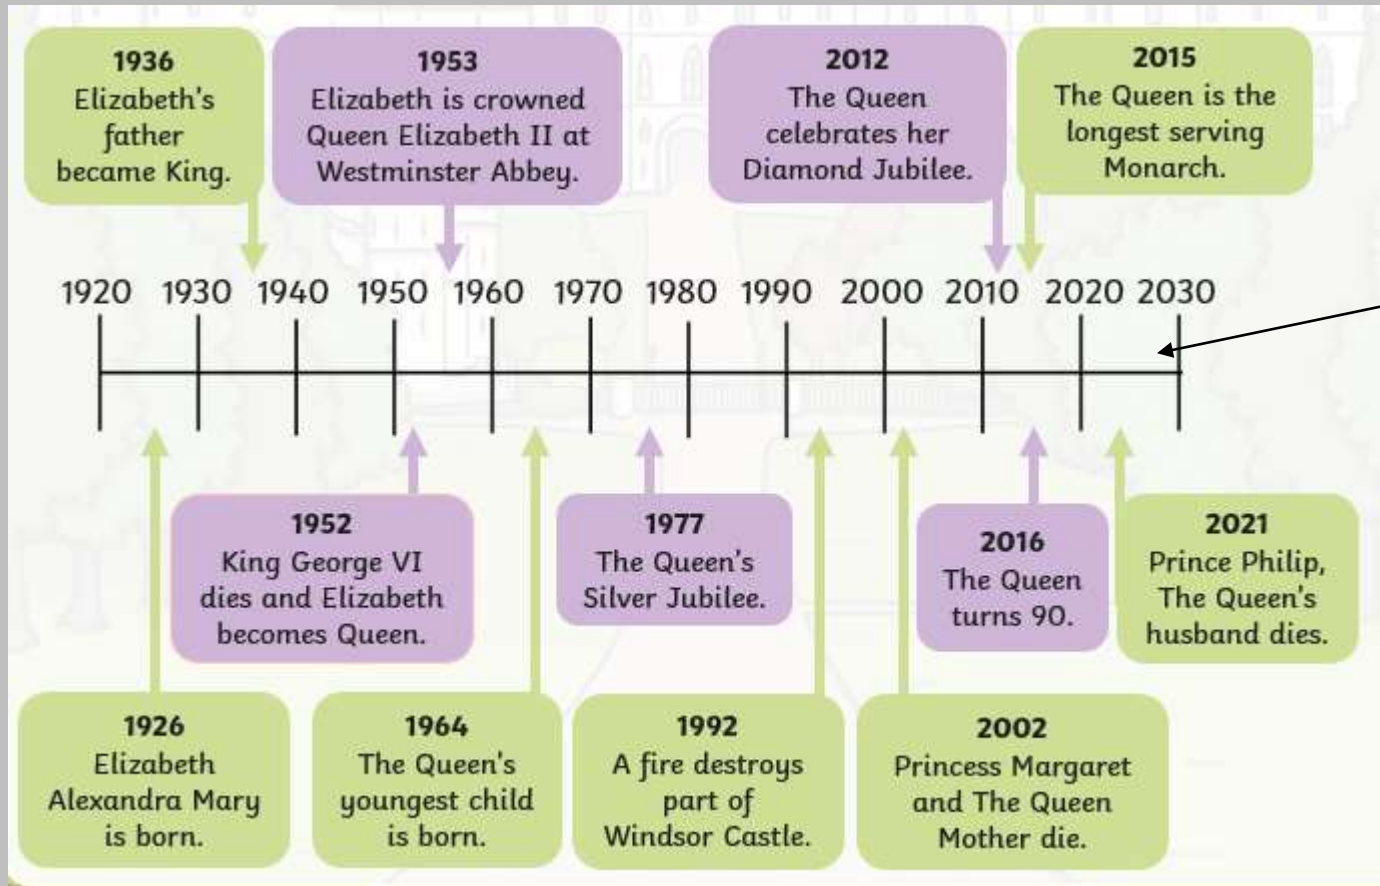

Lady Louise
Mountbatten-Windsor

And 12 Great-Grandchildren, including Prince George, who will one day become King himself.

Summary of Events in the Queen's Life

HM Queen Elizabeth dies.

08th September 2022

Aged 96 years old

So what happens now...

Day 1- The world is informed of The Queen's has died.

Day 2- Prince Charles (her eldest son) will be named King. Charles 3rd.

Day 10/12- The Queen's Funeral :

There will be a day of National Mourning and two minutes silence will be held across Britain.

The funeral will take place at Westminster Abbey, followed by a service at St George's Chapel, Windsor Castle, where the Queen will be buried in the Memorial Chapel.

We send our thoughts to her majesty's family and we pray that she will rest
in peace.

God Save the King

Thank you for listening

