What is Egyptian art?

Ancient Egyptian art is the painting, sculpture, architecture and other arts produced by the civilization of ancient Egypt in the lower Nile Valley from about 3000 BC to 30 AD.

Key Vocabulary

Vocabulary	Definition
Papyrus	The ancient Egyptians used the stem of the papyrus plant to make sails, cloth, mats, cords, and, above all, paper.
Profile view	a side view, or an outline, of an object, especially of a human face or head.
Frontal view	The view of something looking directly front on.
Hieroglyphics	Hieroglyphics is a writing system that uses pictures and symbols instead of letters and words.
Pharaoh	The person in charge with the most amount of power, such as king or leader. The Pharaohs were also often seen as the gods with supreme power.
architecture	The science and art of designing buildings.
Tomb	A tomb is a place where a dead person is buried.

What techniques will we use?

We will create our own papyrus paper and then draw a profile onto it.

Why are there paintings of Pharaohs? This was because pharaohs were considered as Gods.
